FACULTY 10

CLASSES 20

ACTIVITIES 80

FRESHMEN

Excited Freshies in the hall
Seem to know not much at all;
Upper classmen sigh with bliss,
Were we ever quite like this?

SOPHOMORES

We're not Freshmen any more—
We're Sophomores now and know the score.
We average Sigma, a blessed fate;
With homework and teachers we really rate.

JUNIORS

Upper classmen we are called,
About our homework we're appalled.
Between Trig. and Physics we're a mess,
And 3B Themes aren't "happiness."

SENIORS

Ah, the blessed time has come,
For now we're known by everyone.
We are the top, the highest yet,
And as we look back we shall not forget
The fun we've had at Ole Aitchpe
That meant so much to you and me.
The wonderful prom,
An evening of bliss;
Certainly our memories
Are made of this!

MEMORIES

ARE MADE OF THIS . . .

DEDICATION

The road to success is a rough one indeed,

So, here are eight people whom we really need.

They help us with problems and find answers to

The questions we ask them on what we're to do.

Their helping hands are always extended

To each of the students whom they have befriended.

With a smile, some advice, they're friends always waiting—

They're our grade advisors to whom we're dedicating

This '57 Annual of old Aitchpe—

The reasons are evident, as you can see.

Standing: Mr. Helm; Miss Johnson; Mr. Gearon; Mr. Russell.
Sitting: Mrs. Edgar; Mrs. Priddy; Miss McGurk; Miss Kurrie.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dr. Milton J. Cohler

In this centennial year of the founding of public secondary education in Chicago, we feel proud that our school has been in the forefront of this parade of educational progress for eighty-seven of these hundred years. It is no accident that a leading public high school and a great laboratory high school have both found fertile ground in the Hyde Park community. A long list of progressive community and educational leaders have given inspiration and strength to each other in building a community and schools which have faced their problems with confidence and intelligence.

The many distinguished Americans who have been educated at Hyde Park High School bear witness to the success of their efforts. Our graduates whom we proudly feature in this Aitchpe, and the many who will follow them in succeeding years, will surely add strength and brilliance to this distinguished record of community service and achievement.

Thus our community will renew itself with the new leaders that the community and its high school have helped to build—and with these it will meet the new challenges that face every period of history.

Mr. George Triezenberg,
Assistant Principal

Mr. Triezenberg's known by all

The Hyde Park students, large and small;

He helps them with the teen-age fight,

The battle of knowing wrong from right.

And closely associated with this fine man,

Is "Our Miss Brooks" who helps us plan,

Our college days and future years,

And disbands all doubts and many fears.

So, many thanks to each of you

For helping us see our school days through.

For being both a guide and friend,

"Our mem'ries of you will never end."

BUSINESS and OFFICE

It's a pleasure to do business,
For the price is just quite right,
And these folks who lend a helping hand
Are there for your delight.

So if you've got a problem
Or a question on your mind
Perhaps you want some good advice,
Help you'll surely find—
By people who are competent,
Ambitious to aid you—
Got a problem? Here's the cure—
They all know what to do.

LUNCHROOM AND MAINTENANCE

The people in the lunchroom
We cannot do without,
For lunch is quite important
And they always help us out—
By preparing students' lunches
By always being faced—
With serving food to all
Aitchpes
They just can't be replaced—
And . . .
The halls and rooms of Hyde Park High
Are always spic and span—
But they couldn't be another way—
With our Maintenance Crew on hand.

AITCHPE KING

Take one guy that's really great,
A friend to everyone;
Then add to this a bright "hello,"
A person full of fun.

Take an active person
In school activities,
With skill and much intelligence
His aim is just to please.

A four year Sigma,
3A Pres., a Quill and Scroll award,
Are just a few accomplishments
Of Hyde Park's reigning lord.

For what you are we choose you,
We're proud that you're our King;
SID LEIBOVITCH you've earned it
Cause you're tops in everything.

AITCHPE QUEEN

A wonderful personality,
The light laugh of a pixie,
The wide brown eyes, the turned up nose,
Identify our "Trixie."

Packed with charm, intelligence,
She's pleasing to the eye,
She's tops in all activities,
And here's the reason why—

She's co-ed of our Hydeparker,
A Sigma, G.A.A.,
She's received, in addition, six awards,
We're proud that we can say.

As queen of Hyde Park High School,
We commend you for what you've done,
KATRINA BENNETT here's to you,
You're loved by everyone.

SENIOR A

It's hard to finally realize
Our high school days are through,
But always we'll remember
The things we used to do.
The fun we had, our classmates,
Our teachers, homework, friends,
For this is all that goes into
A mem'ry that never ends.

Seven steps of learning;

Our thoughts are all aglow;

For all that's left here at Hyde Park,

Is a half a step to go.

It's hard four years of learning;

Our goal is drawing near

And the basis for our future

Is the knowledge we gained here.

An Unforgettable Night

The climax of our school days
Has made a lasting mark,
On each and every Senior
Who's attended ol' Hyde Park.
After the Prom our thoughts linger,
The evening was wonderfully bright;
Everyone dressed in the finest of clothes
For a starry and moonlit night.
Swiftly our minds are sent backwards
To thoughts of our high school fun;
And slowly we start to realize,
Our high school days are done.
Yes—Our high school days are ending,
And soon they'll be part of our past;
But this corsage and diploma
Prove our mem'ries will always last.
Yes, the wonderful Prom—
An evening of bliss—
Certainly our mem'ries are made of this.

ELECTIONS!!

The United States had its Lincoln,
Washington and Adams too,
But a look into the future shows
The next president might be you.

The elections at Hyde Park High School,
Show political indications,
Of what the future holds for us
In government situations.

GOOD

EINSTEIN VS.
HYDE PARK GENIUSES

Einstein and his numbers
Could never quite compare
With H. P's great Math. Honor,
This fact we think is rare.
A book should soon be written
Of the brilliant minds of these
Phenomenal mathematicians,
Who think with the greatest ease.
They think of many numbers
And quick as you can wink,
They come up with the answers
Without any time to think.
If Einstein could just see them,
He'd stutter with dismay,
Seeing this ingenuity;
There's nothing he could say.

Miss Paine

DICTION AND GRAMMAR

M.G.M.'s demanding them,
20th Century's in a rage,
To secure a contract from one of them
To please this modern age.
They'll soon be seen in cinemascope
And hailed in great 3D;
And heard with stereophonic sound—
On Broadway they'll soon be.
Of course this is the future,
But their future does look bright;
For all we know, with Miss Paine's help
They may be Broadway's light.

"Ain't," "Cain't," "Sumpin,"
"Nutin," "I," and "Me,"
Can cause a lot of trouble
When we speak grammat:cally.
To help with verbs and adjectives,
With feminines and neutors,
Hyde Park is very well equipped
With learned English tutors.
And so to help and teach you
The grammar you should know,
These English tutors help to make,
Your grammar knowledge grow!

CONGRESS IS NOW IN SESSION

Congress would be envious
Of HP's legislature,
For this is rare with quality
And of a wondrous nature.
Taxes aren't imposed at all,
And wars they don't declare,
And navies aren't maintained through them,
Of this we're quite aware.
They do not coin our money
Or establish any court;
Their only aim is giving aid
Or help of any sort.
So here's to Student Council!
Let's give a hearty cheer!
And the reason we are cheering them
I'm sure is made quite clear.

Mrs. Parry

ON YOUR HONOR

When teachers start to wail and moan,
And work gets hard and long,
A Senior Sponsor lends a hand—
With them you can't go wrong.
They're a cheery sight in the office,
In divisions they'll always be found;
They render service faithfully—
It's a relief when they're around.
So we'd like to thank Mrs. Parry
For the wonderful work she's done,
In recruiting and training the sponsors,
In a million—She's the one!

REMINDER OF YOUR HIGH SCHOOL DAZE

The Annual you're looking through,
We're sure that you'll agree,
In later years will hold for you
A lasting memory.
Take some blue, take some white
And make a cover bold;
Put white pages in between
And memories it can hold.
Sprinkle stardust forming
The Letters of old "AITCHPE,"
Have pictures revealing faces,
That smile familiarly.
All these things are part of
The fun that's in the past,
But through the years
It holds for us,
The mem'ries that will last.

HYDE PARK NEWS

Extra, extra, read all about it!
That's the "Hydeparker's" yell.
It's a paper that's renowned with fame,
With a staff that's doing well.
There are columns filled with Hyde Park's news,
Plus the editors' reports.
In addition to these there's gossip
And a page with news of sports.
For the hours of pleasure they've brought us,
In reading Hyde Park's reviews,
We'd like to thank Mrs. Drell and her staff
For a paper that all of us choose.

ATTENDING
YOUR ATTENDANCE

In Room 117
A line forms every day
Of students securing
A slip for delay.
They're puffing and panting,
They're quite out of breath—
If tardy a third time,
The sentence is—DEATH.
Your tummy may hurt you,
Your head's full of pain,
So to 117—
Dismissal to claim.
. . . But we're just very lucky,
As you can plainly see,
Having 117
As a part of Aitchpe.

Mrs. Donahue, Mrs. Murphy,
Miss Solfermoser.

THE DOOR TO KNOWLEDGE

Looking for Caesar, Charlemagne,
Columbus, Byrd, or Lee,
Frederick II, Thoreau,
Or even Franklin D.?
Perhaps an old biography
Or a novel caught your eye;
A World Book or a magazine,
As you were passing by?
And what is this you're passing by?
Why lots of people know—
The library of old Aitchpe
Where everyone should go.
You'll meet and get acquainted
With almost everyone,
From Christopher Columbus,
To Ralph Waldo Emerson.
So when in need remember,
For some pleasure or a theme,
For research papers, homework—
That's a must for every teen,
The Gonnelly Library has for you
These teachers and these Aides
Who try to help primarily,
To help you make good grades.

Mr. Hendy, Mr. Russell.

"THE SUPERMEN OF HYDE PARK"—"THE PEOPLE'S CHOICE"

If you see some men in monkey suits
Do not be frightened—don't run,
For they're not from Mars or Pluto
Nor even the moon or sun.
No—these husky young men of Hyde Park High,
Who do wonders with wires and lights,
Are members of the Stage Force Crew—
To us they're wonderful sights.

Mr. Russell and his able staff
Would be the first to agree,
That the elections we have bi-annually
Are held most honestly.
For we use the best equipment,
"That's a fact," we're proud to say,
To assure the very best results
On Hyde Park's election day.

DIG THIS!!

Planning to be a teacher?
Is your future right in view?
If it seems you've got a question,
Then F.T.A.'s for you.
To train you and to show you
What a teacher's goal should be Future Teachers of America's
An opportunity.

The Aitchpe Conservation Club
Surely earns its worth;
For here's a group of students
Who are really "down to earth."
They take a lot of field trips,
Make a study of our land—
For doing this constructive work,
This club is really grand.

Mrs. Kamins, Mrs. Hawkes

Miss Graybill, Miss Pirritte,
Mrs. Turner

AROUND THE WORLD IN ONE SEMESTER

In French Club all the students learn
Just what "Ah, bonjour" means,
And how "de parler mal francais,"
And how to say "tray beans."
They speak it and they listen
To speakers and they see,
How helpful and how pleasant
A language can really be.
All good ninos and ninas
Are very proud to say,
"We belong to the Spanish Club,
Each member we greet with Ole!"
Down to Halsted's Mexico
For tacos buenos to eat,
We went one Saturday morning,
It certainly was a treat.

Although we meet just twice a month,
It's very plain to see—
That we've learned a lot in Spanish Club,
For it suits us to a "T."
"Ganz gewiss," and words like these,
At the German Club you hear;
Along with "nein" and "mein fraulein"
So charming to the ear.
And as the members leave H.P.
Their voices ring with pain,
When they bid their friends goodbye—
With that old "Auf Wiedersehen."

WE REFUTE

The affirmative takes a definite stand
The negative follows suit —
Then they argue back and forth . . .
"We maintain" and "We refute."
In years to come we'll find them
Arguing the law of the land,
These same H.P. debaters,
Still taking a definite stand.

"WHERE THERE'S MUSIC....."

Hyde Park's Junior Orchestra
Plays music that delights;
The way it plays, everyone says,
"It really 'scales' the heights."
An air of excitement is felt everywhere,
As the maestro's baton is raised;
A thrilling rendition of Mozart is heard—
The music leaves everyone dazed.
Who are these modern Tchaikovskys we say—
Who can make such a wonderful sound?
Why they're the dance band of Hyde Park High,
At Carnegie soon they'll be found.

CONCERT BAND

MUSIC! MUSIC! MUSIC!

Here is Hyde Park's Concert Band,
It's novel in a way,
For surely you must all agree—
That when they work they play.
Take a cupful of notes,
And some sharps and flats, too—
Then stir with a clef,
Until mixed through and through.
Sprinkle lightly with strains
Of old master's refrains—
And you have H.P.'s Concert Band
Playing for you.

GAA

Girls are not forgotten
At sports here at Aitchpe,
And sometimes they show up the boys
In sport activity.
With interest in a sport event,
Or games you like to play,
Pay a quarter, get a card,
And join our G.A.A.
It offers members Pep Club,
For cheering at its best;
Also, Neptune's Daughters
For swimming without rest.
It has a type of government
Representing G.A.A.,
That relates the member's wishes—
And they're filled without delay.

MISS THOMPSON AND
GAA DELEGATES

NEPTUNE'S DAUGHTERS

SPORTS

WIN THAT GAME!

Sports have many meanings
To the students of H.P.
They could release emotion,
But,—enough psychology.
They have a different meaning
To the students and the teams,
They stand for spirit, sportsmanship,
And friendship—so it seems.
The students are important
In sports here at Hyde Park;
By cheering on the team they love—
They play a lasting part.
So, really in all sports events
It's very plain to see,
That both the students and the team
Are a necessity.

BOYS' GYM TEACHERS

Mr. Schultz; Mr. Ziemba; Mr. Long; Mr. Korita.

TEAM MANAGERS

STANDING: Karp, R.; Margolis, R.; Roth, J.; Cohen, H.
SEATED: Appelbaum, H.; Hendricks, A.

FORE!

Like a small white bird the ball does fly,
Right on the green it goes,
"Who hit that wondrous shot?"
A Hydeparker whom everyone knows.

A future Ben Hogan he'll certainly be
For his training is surely the best.
He's a member of Hyde Park's Golf Team—
This name he'll always stress.

BOWL ME OVER!

The crowd is still and tense with fear;
The men of the team are grim;
For they aim to beat the opponents—
This is no passing whim.

Excitement grows as we near the ninth frame
And the noise is far from mild;
But then as Hyde Park gets a strike,
The crowd goes almost wild.

GOLF

Mr. Ziemba; Weiss, H.; Weiss, B.; Herman, M.; Jacobsen, R.; Cohen, H.

BOWLING

BASEBALL:

TOP ROW: Mr. Schultz; Jefferson, A.; Kennedy, A.; Hyrams, A.; Scrutchens, J.; Hopson, F.; Foster, S.; Wells, H.; Meyer, L. (mgr.)

BOTTOM ROW: Herman, M.; Shoemaker, T.; Beasley, E.; Garth, T.; Andreas, B.; Ideno, G.; Ishibashi, W.

BATTER UP!

The pitcher steps on the mound,
His body's tense with fear;
No outs, the bases loaded,
This starts the baseball year.
All eyes are on this figure,
And he knows just what to do,
He'll make the batter strike three times
And again Hyde Park pulls through.
The teamwork of our baseball team
Is quite a sight to see,
For each man strives his hardest
To bring Hyde Park victory.

TRACK:

TOP ROW: Moore, E.; Johnson, F.; Wells, H.; Sipp, M.; Rainey; Dukes, M.; Yeakamas, J.; Jones, C.; Boyd, D.; Heard, A.; Shelton; Wright, D.

BOTTOM ROW: Jones, C.; Thomas, J.; Andrews, C.; Fletcher, R.; Sherman, J.; Morrow, A.; Martin, D.

RUNNING WILD

There's puffing and there's panting,
Track season soon begins;
All runners are in training
So they will not fail to win.
All Hyde Park track stars seem to be
The fastest things alive;
This proves they'll win all tournaments,
They're quite hep to the jive.

Our baseball and our track teams
Are teams that can't be beat,
While they're batting and they're running.
They'll never know defeat.

IN THE SWIM

The starting gun is sounded,
A tremendous splash is heard,
Hyde Park's swim team leads the way
To victory! Our famous word.

There are many long hours of practice,
To get to the head of this race;
But needless to say—the work is worthwhile,
For now—Hyde Park sets the pace.

KNIGHTS OF THE CHESS TABLE

Another fine sport can be found at Hyde Park
Although of a quieter kind,
It's the game of Kings and gentlemen;
It's called chess—a sport for the mind.

The patient young men of our chess team
Have proven they've got what it takes;
For they've won almost every game,
Why! They're wonders—for goodness sakes.

VICTORY FOR HYDE PARK HIGH

The quarterback dodges around the end,
He's running very fast,
He passes the ten and five yard lines—
Hurray! A touchdown at last.

The cheerleaders scream and yell with glee;
The crowd jumps up and down;
Hyde Park has won another game
To add to its renown.

Mr. Hasan and Michael Meyers, Weideman Award Winner.

GO TO YOUR LEFT, YOUR RIGHT, YOUR LEFT.

When marching along together,
It isn't hard to see
That Hyde Park is equipped
With a fine R.O.T.C.
Boys are proudly marching
To their left and to their right;
And with "at ease," "all right, fall in"
It's an impressive sight;
They're the future "Danny Foresters,"
They'll keep our country free
From any threatening forces,
We're proud they're from H.P.
So to our future soldiers,
You'll know just what to do;
Because of H.P.'s training,
You'll be soldiers through and through.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The students of Hyde Park High School, with deep appreciation, wish to thank Doctor Cohler, Miss O'Shea, Robert Omori, Robert Hillman, and Mr. Koenig for their kind efforts and co-operation in making this Aitchpe of 1957 possible. Without their help and unlimited patience, the publication of this year's Annual would have been impossible.

The Hyde Park Annual Staff of 1957 would personally like to thank all of these people for the guidance they've given us and the diligent work they've done to help make this Year Book the best of all. The job of planning, compiling, and publishing an Annual is not an easy one, but with the help of these people the work done was a pleasant task, and a successful job.

Thank you for your help, we couldn't have done without it.

, but anyway, B.Y.F. really wasn't so bad after all. In fact I really loved it when Miss P.V. didn't put in an appearance. Wasn't she a riot sometimes. Is - so sophisticated.

Which brings up another problem of ours - namely Pam, Ellen, and Raye. I have an idea that next year, we'll be better friends with them. But until then, we've got a whole long summer to live. I certainly hope that your vacation is as wonderful as you want it to be. Just remember, dont do anything I wouldn't do. Which isn't much (I know) Ill try to write to you but PU-LEASE write back.

Well, with all our burlap sacks, sore fingers, crewcuts (how do you like mine?) and all those silly (but weren't they fun?) jokes of ours, did say this has really been TOPS.

Love 'n' stuff,

Yours truely,
Edith

P.S. I didn't mention any boys except B.H. but there sure has been a lot of them.
